AAR: A Fired Factory Worker Killed 5, then Himself

Message From MABPRO:

MABPRO offers our condolences to the families that have lost loved ones due to these horrible tragedies that have been taking place recently in our nation.

The purpose of this assessment is to provide information that will hopefully help people regain their confidence and sense of safety in public. There is no guaranteed fix, but we can, however, do our best to educate ourselves on what to do if we ever found ourselves in the midst of a crisis.

At an awnings factory near Orlando, Florida, a man who had been fired returned to his old workplace and killed five people he had targeted before killing himself.

The 45-year-old U.S. Army veteran, John Robert Neumann Jr., was armed with a semi-automatic handgun and hunting knife.

Most of the victims were shot in the head, some multiple times, according to Orange County Sheriff Jerry Demings.

The identified victims were Robert Snyder, 69; Brenda Montanez-Crespo, 44; Kevin Clark, 53; Jeffrey Roberts, 57; and Kevin Lawson, 46, according to the Orange County Sheriff's Office.

Orange County Sheriff Jerry Demings described Neumann as a disgruntled ex-employee but said it was unclear why he was fired or what prompted his actions. There was also a reported that he battered another employee, but no charges were brought, Demings said.
