AAR: Learning from the Walmart Shooting: What Employers can do to Prevent Workplace Violence

Message From MABPRO:

MABPRO offers our condolences to the families that have lost loved ones due to these horrible tragedies that have been taking place recently in our nation.

The purpose of this assessment is to provide information that will hopefully help people regain their confidence and sense of safety in public. There is no guaranteed fix, but we can, however, do our best to educate ourselves on what to do if we ever found ourselves in the midst of a crisis.

The sixth deceased victim was a 16-year-old boy who authorities are not naming because he was a minor.

The authorities identified the shooter as 31-year-old Andre Bing, “armed with one handgun and had multiple magazines.”. According to the company, Bing was a manager and had worked at Walmart since 2010.

The incident started around 10:12 p.m. and at least 50 people were inside when it happened, police said. The city officials also stated that at least six more people were transported to local hospitals for treatment.
