AAR: Six Dead, Including Gunman in Molson
Coors Shooting

Message From MABPRO:

MABPRO offers our condolences to the families that have lost loved ones due to these horrible tragedies that have been taking place recently in our nation.

The purpose of this assessment is to provide information that will hopefully help people regain their confidence and sense of safety in public. There is no guaranteed fix, but we can, however, do our best to educate ourselves on what to do if we ever found ourselves in the midst of a crisis.

AAR: Six Dead, Including Gunman in Molson Coors Shooting

A mass shooting occurred at the Molson Coors Beverage Company in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, at approximately 2:10 p.m. The 51-year-old gunman shot and killed five coworkers before committing suicide.

The Milwaukee police responded to reports of a shooting at the company just before 2:10 p.m. The company used Twitter to announce the situation just before 2:30 p.m.

Following the shooting, agents with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) were dispatched to the scene, while several nearby schools and businesses were placed on lockdown.

The police identified the shooter as Anthony Ferrill. He worked as an electrician for more than 20 years, spending about 17 of those at the Milwaukee campus. In 2015, a noose was placed in Ferrill's locker. However, the police have not confirmed a motive for the shooting.
